PROPHECY- “Destroy My Empire, My Son- Your LORD Has Spoken”

“The Evil Empire must be destroyed, My son. I make it so. Nothing will be left when I Am finished with it. The Living God is against it- nothing will be left but dust and ashes, the charred remains of a once great civilization. They are against Me; they have turned against Me long ago; they reject My Spirit; they quench Me at every turn. They must be destroyed. The kingdom of the Antichrist spirit will come down hard- nothing will be left. I make it so. Millions will die from man-made diseases, yea, even hundreds of millions. All have forsaken Me. Few are left who still serve Me. Nuclear bombs will fall everywhere- flee for your life! Nothing will be left but dust and ashes, and bones scattered everywhere- the remains of a once-mighty civilization. I make it so. Amen and amen. Your LORD has spoken.”
